

Top Ten Reasons Why You Should Attend the VATE Annual Conference

Attendance at the Virginia Association of Teachers of English annual conference will provide your English teachers with:

10. Networking opportunities with other English teachers in Virginia.
9. Sources for creative teaching strategies and materials.
8. Professional involvement in a state-level organization.
7. Venues to connect with other grade-level educators and specialists.
6. Opportunities to attend readings and discussions by nationally-published writers .
5. Access to vendors on-site with language arts resources and assistance.
4. Forums to discuss current educational policy and ways to make a difference in your educational community.
3. Fantastic professional development opportunities with engaging sessions to take back to the classroom.
2. Opportunities to GET INVOLVED!
1. Lessons, activities, and discussions centering on the development of reading, writing, vocabulary, and language skills.

Don't delay!

Visit www.vate.org for registration information!

