Manuscripts

The editorial Board of the Virginia English Bulletin welcomes contributions related to the teaching of language arts and English at all school levels, especially manuscripts of 3-12 pages on announced themes. Manuscripts should be submitted electronically, as e-mail attachments, preferably in either WordPerfect or Microsoft Word, but other formats and word processing programs are generally acceptable as well. To have your article considered for publication, please comply with the following: (1) Carefully state "VEB Submission" in the Subject line of the e-mail and provide the following information in the body of the e-mail text itself: your name, full address, telephone number and E-mail address, file name, computer program used, and version of program. (2) Also in the body of the e-mail or in an attached cover letter file, provide a short biographical sketch including the name of your school or former school(s), position, courses taught and a brief statement about your professional life. (3) Make sure the spelling of the names of the author(s) in the reference section agree with the spelling in the text and that the copyright dates concur in both sections, and provide full reference data, complying with either APA or MLA style. When making a direct quote, please include quotation marks and specific reference data--if APA, last name of author(s), copyright year, page numbers; if MLA, author(s) and page numbers. (4) Carefully proof final copy attached to e-mail BEFORE submitting, checking for omissions, correct publication information, and spelling, stylistic, punctuation, and grammatical conventions. E-mail address: rohwilli@radford.edu. Deadlines for copy are April 15 and September 15 unless otherwise advertised. Robert Williams, Radford University, P.O. Box 6935, Radford, Virginia 24142.
