Manuscripts

The editorial Board of the Virginia English Bulletin welcomes contributions related to the teaching of language arts and English at all school levels, especially manuscripts of 3-12 pages on announced themes. Manuscripts should be typewritten, double-spaced, and submitted in duplicate. When possible, authors should also submit manuscripts on disk, preferably in Microsoft Word; however, other formats and word processing programs are acceptable. Note to MAC users—submit your copy in ASCII form, E-mail, or send as an attached document to an e-mail. To have your article considered for publication, please comply with the following: (1) Carefully label your disk, providing the following information: your name, full address, telephone number and E-mail address, file name, computer program used, and version of program. (2) Attach a cover letter with a short biographical sketch including the name of your school, position, courses taught and a brief statement about your professional life. (3) Run Spell check on BOTH your hard copy and your disk copy. (4) Make sure the spelling of the names of the author(s) in the reference section agree with the spelling in the text and that the copyright dates concur in both sections. Provide full reference data, complying with either APA or MLA style. When making a direct quote, please include quotation marks and specific reference data--if APA, last name of author(s), copyright year, page numbers; if MLA, author(s) and page numbers. (5) Reread your printed, spell-checked hard copy AND disk copy of your manuscript BEFORE submitting your publication, checking for omissions, correct publication information, and spelling/grammatical errors. (6) Include a self-addressed, return envelope; clip stamps to the envelope, but do not paste them. Send copies to Robert Williams, Radford University, P.O. Box 6935, Radford, Virginia 24142. Deadlines for copy are April 1 and September 15 unless otherwise advertised. The editor reserves the right to modify manuscripts to fit length and language considerations. E-mail address: rohwilli@radford.edu
